NO BUCKING.

Whoop, and the world whoops with you;
Don't, and the world falls asleep,
For many's the one
Who goes on the run
For nothing except to keep
In line with the long procession
Of the strenuous things of earth
That pass for the gold of pleasure
And stand for the gems of mirth.

The highest priced basket of the season was sold at the Home yesterday, when a basket out of the crop of Hitt and Crawford of Robertson county, was knocked down to the American Tobacco Company at 41 cents per pound. In addition to selling the highest priced basket, the Home, also, yesterday had the biggest sale of the season, 304,995 pounds. This is certainly "going some." But that is what the Home does every day.

PROHIBITION BATTLE

At Paris, Ky., Almost Equaled the Fight Between the Allies and Emperor Bill

Saloon Keeper Who Had Some Pluck Caused Authorities a Bunch of Trouble

Paris, Ky., January 12.—The bitter fight between the wet and dry forces was waged here yesterday. Last Saturday, the legal limit, as claimed by some, which the saloons could remain open, all closed yesterday with the exception of John Johnson, who conducts two places. At 5 o'clock yesterday morning his places were both opened for business.

An injunction had been granted the wets prohibiting the chief of police from taking any action against Johnson looking toward closing his place. In the meantime the dries secured a seizure warrant through the County Court and before the wets could obtain an injunction the sheriff had taken possession of both saloons, closing them and taking the keys. It is not known what Mr. Johnson's next move will be, but he promises to be open again.

A special meeting of the city council was called yesterday morning by the mayor to consider a motion to refund the saloon keepers a proportion of their license money from date to May 1. The council, however, refused to take such action.

In the Court of Appeals today Attorney Denis Dindon and J. J. Williams will file a petition asking for a writ of prohibition restraining Police Judge January and County Judge McMillan from trying Johnson on the warrants and from confiscating his property. Attorneys for the dries will apply to Judge Stout for a writ dissolving the injunction against Chief of Police Link.

He is a man of varied powers, offering a rare combination of art and humor. In a space of 20 minutes he produces six or eight great heads in clay, national types as well as laughable creations. One feature is a pious burlesque, in which the artist slaps a touch of red into his program. We are expecting a large attendance, so see Williams for reserved seats before too late.

WAVE OF CRIME.

A wave of crime seems to have broken out and swept over the state within the past few weeks. Scores of homicides, shootings and slashings have occurred. The burglaries that have been committed amount up into the hundreds. Failure to enforce the laws is the prime cause of nearly all these troubles. With the passing of the saloons there is not that diminution of crime that there around and one side was ripped up enough to be in this state.—Mt. Olivet Tribune.

SMALL COLLISION.

A street car in charge of Mr. Edward Forman and an automobile driven by Mr. Wadsworth Cole collided at the corner of Third and Limestone streets yesterday afternoon about noon, and to those who witnessed it, it looked as if some one was going to be killed. The street car escaped injury, the passing of the saloons there is not but the automobile was turned entirely that diminution of crime that there around and one side was ripped up enough to be in this state.—Mt. Olivet Tribune.

THE PRESIDENT AS A PARTISAN.

The most striking feature of President Wilson's address at Indianapolis was its violent partisanship.

Recently it has seemed that the spirit of extreme partisanship was going out of our politics. You might be a Republican or a Democrat—but your arguments, if they were to appeal to thinking men, had to be based on fairness and the truth colored at the most by only a moderate degree of prejudice.

At Indianapolis Mr. Wilson was unfair and prejudiced in his reference to the alleged lack of intelligence on the Republican side of the House and Senate. Referring to Republican members of Congress, the President made this altogether surprising statement: "Some of them are misguided; some of them are blind; most of them are ignorant." It would be interesting to know in which class Mr. Wilson places Senator Root of New York, Senator Burton of Ohio, and Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, to mention only a few of the Republicans in Washington who stand no lower in intelligence and in patriotism than the President himself.

Mr. Wilson was very unfair in his reference to the stand of the Republican members of Congress against the ship purchase bill. He was very unfair in his description of the Republican attitude toward a tariff commission. The Indianapolis speech was, of course, directly political in purpose—but we have come to a time when many Americans, who may still in a general way be regarded as party men, like their partisanship in less heroic doses than of old.—Times-Star.

TO SLEEP RIGHT ONE MUST LIVE RIGHT.

A correspondent inquiring of Dr. Evans as to cures for insomnia gets this answer:

"Do not take sleeping powders, prescribed by anybody. Exercise in the open air, eat a light supper, spend a quiet evening, and retire quietly. If you do not sleep, do not worry or fret. What you lose one night, you will make up the next. If you do not, what difference does it make?"

People who are afflicted with insomnia will experience a relief from reading this advice. The remedy is living right—taking exercise, eating lightly at supper time, spending a quiet evening, cultivating kind thoughts, don't get rattled, don't be morose. In this aspect of the case insomnia is a fault rather than a misfortune. There is a great obstacle in the way of the remedy—it is so hard to live right.—Ashland Independent.

A NEW NAME FOR THE FLY.

The reason the fly continues to exist is because the growing public sentiment against him has not fully matured. The United States Department of Agriculture thinks that one of the best ways to arouse such sentiment would be by changing his somewhat innocuous name. Now we call him the Housefly, which sounds innocent and doesn't excite adequate disgust or apprehension when he trails over our food. The Department of Agriculture believes that the official name should be changed to the Manure Fly, because he is born in manure and loves to abide in it. If flies were commonly called manure flies nobody would tolerate them about the house, spreading filth and the germs of typhoid and other virulent diseases.

The Maine Farmer says: "People who have been wondering at the continued and gratifying drop in sugar, will be interested to learn that said lowering of price was partly due to the beautiful crop of sugar beets raised in Michigan, where $5,000,000 has been paid to farmers for that product this fall."

A PATRIOTIC CREED.

We believe in our country—the United States of America. We believe in her constitution, her laws, her institutions, and the principles for which she stands. We believe in her future—the past is secure. We believe in her vast resources, her great possibilities—yes, more, her wonderful certainties.

We believe in the American people, their genius, the brain and their brawn. We believe in their honesty, their integrity and dependability. We believe that nothing can stand in the way of their commercial advancement and prosperity.

We believe that what are termed "times of business depression" are but periods of preparation for greater and more pronounced commercial successes.

And we believe that in our country are being worked out great problems, the solution of which will be for the benefit of all mankind.

We believe that true progress is through evolution, not revolution, and that what the world needs is not a radical change but continued perseverance in well doing.

(The above creed has been widely distributed by a prominent New York banking house.)

The economic side of industrial accidents is to be placed before the people of Ohio in the big Safety First Congress to be held in Columbus in January. An adequate idea of the economic losses resulting from accidents will be sought. The report of the State Industrial Commission shows more than 50,000 in a year with upwards of 350 deaths from injuries. Reduction of the number by proper measures is believed possible, and will be the subject to which attention will be given in a serious manner.

Railroads are the second largest industry in the country. They have just received an increase of rates that will yield $30,000,000 a year additional revenue. With this amount they will enter the market for new supplies and equipment. Millions will be released for improvements and betterments. Other basic industries will benefit directly from this development and material improvement is to be looked for soon in all lines of steel and iron, coal, copper and railroad equipment.

Mr. Fairbanks, former Vice President, tersely remarks: "To throw away millions of dollars in revenue at the custom houses of the country and make up the deficiency by a system of stamp taxes upon the current business of the people will intensify popular discontent." That is true enough and there is growing evidence that the country is fast learning the lesson.

Because of the war, English manufacturers and consumers of wood pulp have been caused considerable uneasiness. Production is at a standstill in the countries at war, and in Norway and Sweden principal sources of supply, mills have been greatly hampered because of a lack of coal and of chemicals. England has practically no domestic sources of pulp.

New Hampshire's "good old man," ex-Senator Chandler, predicts a complete and effective repudiation of the Wilson policies in 1916 "through the election as President of the brave American, Governor Whitman of New York."

It is stated that the American Federation of Labor is preparing to resist any wage reductions by corporations, regardless of any circumstances affecting business unfavorably.

Didn't Forget His Nip.

Doctor—"I hope you are following my instructions carefully, Sandy—the pills three times a day and a drop of whisky at bed time?"

Sandy—"Well, sir, I may be a wee bit behind w' the pills, but I'm about six weeks in front w' the whisky."

CRYING FOR HELP

Lots of It in Maysville But Daily Growing Less.

The kidneys often cry for help. Not another organ in the whole body more delicately constructed. Not one more important to health. The kidneys are the filters of the blood.

When they fail the blood becomes foul and poisonous.

There can be no health where there is poisoned blood.

Backache is one of the frequent indications of kidney trouble.

It is often the kidney's cry for help. Read what Doan's Kidney Pills have done for overworked kidneys.

Read what Doan's have done for Maysville people.

Lang Stevens, Maysville, Ky., says: "My kidneys were out of order and I had backache, which extended into my kidneys. The kidney action was irregular. Doan's Kidney Pills had been used in my family, so I gave them a trial. They helped me greatly."

Mr. Stevens is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mr. Stevens had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50c all stores. COUGHED ALMOST CONSTANTLY

Great Victory for Vinol Over a Severe Bronchial Cough. Vinol Succeeded After Everything Else Failed.

Bogalusa, Ala.—"I am a housekeeper and have three in my family, and I had a terrible cough and pains in my chest for so long I was discouraged. I coughed almost constantly and would almost lose my breath. My trouble interfered with my work because I was so weak and run-down from continual coughing. I took cod liver, oil emulsions and other medicines which did me no good. Finally our druggist told me about Vinol. I tried it and noticed an improvement almost immediately and its continued use has completely cured me. Vinol is certainly wonderful and I praise it wherever I go."—Mrs. W. E. CARLISLE, Bogalusa, Ala.

The reason Vinol is so successful in curing chronic coughs, colds and bronchitis, is because of the healing and tissue building influence of the medicinal principles of cod liver oil, assisted by the tonic and blood making properties of iron, all contained in Vinol.

If Vinol fails to benefit any person in this vicinity who suffers from chronic coughs, colds or bronchitis, or to build up the weak, run-down or debilitated, we will pay back their money. John C. Pecor, Druggist, Maysville, Ky., and at leading drug stores everywhere.

SOME BILLY SUNDAY GRAMS.

You need a revival when the church has sunk to the low depths it has today; when there are as many church people in the theater as any other. You need a revival when you find the church members falling into the grossest sins. When you're keeping somebody on the side and breaking your wife's heart. There's something wrong when hell triumphs over the church and the devil makes a snip out of it. If there wasn't so many linked up with the devil there wouldn't be any use for the Comforter.

The old world is going to hell while you are sitting in the church discussing methods and means. Stand out for Christ just as you would if somebody were to insult your wife or your child. I'd like to see somebody step up here and insult my wife. Something'll happen. I like to fight people who insult God. God likes to see me.

If farmers believed that all they have to do is to plow the ground and God will give them a crop, we would all soon starve to death. You plant and plow because you believe it's God's will to give you a crop. We preach and pray because we believe it is God's will to save us.

Promoting religion is just as common on their knees at the prayer meeting as minister more people at the theater and the carnal party than God can count down on their knees at the prayer meeting. A revival alone can break this power.

Worldly Christians! 'Eigh' Might as well talk of a heavenly devil as worldly Christians of the sort who spend their nights at a show looking at girls with an enough clothes on 'em to make a tail for a kite.

Revival means the return of the church from its backsliding. It has grown cold. There are too many preachers and others who sit around like lumps on a log.

A revival will stop feuds in churches. There should be no splitting of theological hairs. You ministers and members of churches go at the devil with all the power you have.

The lines are going to be drawn closer between true Christianity and damnable, stinking heresy than they ever were before. I'm just getting the range.

SPORTS

BASEBALL GOSSIP.

Report from San Francisco has it that "Lefty" Leifeld will not be with the Seals next season.

By letting go the stars the Philly management is helping Pat Moran to develop a brand new pennant winner, upside down.

"Wild" Bill Donovan is to get a regular big league welcome when he makes his first visit of the season to Detroit as manager of the Yankees.

Nap Lajoie's transfer to the Mackmen has started the Cleveland scribbles on a still hunt for a new name for the Naps.

President Herrmann, the Redland boss, avers that a "5 and 10" store would give better value in a baseball trade than the "swap" offered by Roger Bresnahan, the Cub pilot.

Scout Tom McCarthy of the Red Sox was the baseball coach at Holy Cross when Manager Bill Carrigan broke into the pastime as a catcher for the Holy Cross College team.

Now that Larry Lajoie is a member of the Athletics the Cleveland fans probably will break all attendance records in that city when Larry comes to town with the Mackmen.

The tip has gone forth to watch Brooklyn next season, as the Superbas have never finished in the first division in the last dozen years. They are expected to break the hoodoo in the third year.

Having been successively a ballplayer, manager and umpire in the south for a dozen years or more, Dominick Mulaney, recently appointed an American League umpire, should be well qualified for the duties of a big league umpire.

Walter Johnson may have lost the esteem of many fans by his jumping methods, but if Walter repeats his 1913 pitching performance his double flop soon will be forgotten. It's the winner that gets the gravy in baseball.

Charlie White says he will be prepared to put up a much better battle against Champion Freddie Welsh in New York January 26 than he furnished when the pair met in Milwaukee last November.

THE WEDDING BELLS AMONG THE COLORED SMART SET.

"With this ring I thee wed
In love and truth for life
Till death do us part."

One of the pretty winter weddings was solemnized before a large circle of colored elite of this city as well as a few white friends of the family. The contracting parties were Dr. Robert E. Giles of Washington, D. C., and Miss Irene Bell of this city. The ceremony was performed by the pastor of Bethel Baptist church and in this magnificent edifice on Wednesday evening, January 6, at 8 o'clock.

The church was tastefully decorated for the occasion in white and green and quantities of ferns and white roses being used. At the opening of this beautiful service, Miss Mary Hays presided at the organ in a becoming and graceful manner. Miss Mae Decella Hagood, in a soft and sweet voice, sang "The Rosary."

The wedding procession was composed of most handsomely gowned young ladies and faultlessly dressed gentlemen. As the organ, like the sweet sounding chimney, pealed out soft and dim the famous Mendelssohn Bartoldy's "Wedding March," and the beautiful and dazzling bridal party moved toward the rostrum in all its splendor, keeping time to the one grand voice and silver tone of the music, Miss Anna Giles, maid of honor, accompanied her brother, Dr. Robert E. Giles, the groom; Miss Beatrice Jackson, bridesmaid, accompanied Mr. R. Burns; Mr. James H. Jackson accompanied his sister, Miss Irene Bell, the bride. At the altar they formed a semi-circle and the altar service was in a neat and spicy manner. The pastor, Rev. R. Jackson, read the Baptist ritual service and at the proper time in the service Mr. J. H. Jackson presented the bride to the groom.

The bride is a graduate of the Maysville high school in the class of 1914. She is an accomplished singer and is generally beloved by a wide circle of friends. She never appeared to a better advantage than on the above occasion.

The groom is a high-class young man and has made many friends in this city. He is a graduate of the Department of Pharmacy of Howard's University, Washington, D. C., in the class of 1910. The presents received were many and valuable, useful and beautiful.

The gown of Miss Mary Hays—Venetian banding and shadow lace over blue messaline.

Miss Hagood—Pale blue crepe de chine and shadow lace with pearls.

Miss Jackson—White point de sere with ermine fur over pink satin with diamonds.

Miss Anna Giles—Imported gown of pale blue taffeta with black and jet.

The bridal veil of duchess net caught and festooned to the train with orange blossoms and secured at the back with a tiara of diamonds. The gown of white satin with over-dress of duchess net and ermine fur. The front of the bodice was held by pearls and she wore a diamond necklace. Her traveling suit was black chiffon broadcloth. Hat, black velvet with pink satin lining, fox fur scarf and muff.

After the ceremony a delicious repast was served to the many invited guests at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Thomas Taylor.

The happy couple left over the C. & O. the same evening for New York, Washington and other points in the east. On their return to this city after a short stay, they will go to Portsmouth, O., to enter the drug store business. They have the best wishes of their many friends.

Miss Irene Bell is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bell of West Fourth street.

The ushers at the church were Mr. John Turner and Mr. Tom Taylor.

"Till death do us part."

FARLYZED BUSINESS

Awaits Ray of Hope, Despite Wilson's Speech, Hays Says.

Indianapolis, Ind.—On behalf of the Republican state organization, Chairman Will Hays issued the following statement:

"The President has been in Indiana and the people of the state, regardless of politics, have been pleased to welcome him. We regret, of course, that it has been necessary for the President of the United States to defend the course of his administration in this manner."

"While the President was trying to explain the reasons for his action in certain matters more or less consequential, a million unemployed men with their families were crying for bread. Paralyzed business still awaits a ray of real hope. The policies of the President offer no solution for the emergency in which the voters of the country are really interested."

Indiana Democracy has taken a rather unusual step to try to save their situation, but nothing can prevent the voters of the state and nation, at the first opportunity they have, from taking that action which will bring again to Indiana the efficient and economical government we deserve and to the country again the prosperity to which we are entitled."

DECISION IN FAVOR OF C. & O.

Portsmouth, O.—The Court of Appeals handed down two opinions reversing the Court of Common Pleas of Lawrence county. In the case of Green, administrator, against Chesapeake & Ohio railroad, a judgment of the Court of Common Pleas against the railroad for $18,000 to a widow and two children was set aside, the Appellate Court holding that the judgment should have been for the C. & O., there being no evidence whatever of negligence on the part of the railroad. The Court of Appeals also held that the Common Pleas Court erred in several instances in its charge to the jury, and in failing to give the law requested by the railroad company.

JOKE SAVES GERMAN'S LIFE.

London, January 13.—Among the serious stories received from the front is the following one in lighter vein. In a letter written home the officer of a British regiment tells of a German officer who, while out on scout duty, lost his balance and fell face down in the mud in one of the allies' trenches. The nearest Tommy was just going to prod him with his bayonet when the officer lifted his mouth from the dirt, and remarked in perfect English, "Well, this is a war." It so surprised the Tommy that he burst out laughing and the German saved his life.

CANADIAN INDIANS GIVE AID.

Calgary, Alberta, January 13.—Notwithstanding the fact that they have been seriously affected by the war, the Indians of western Canada are making generous patriotic contributions. A report just made public shows that the Blackfeet and various other Indian tribes in British Columbia, Alberta and Saskatchewan have contributed nearly $5,000 to the various patriotic and relief funds.

The militia of South Carolina was disbanded by an order of Governor Blease, following a controversy with Adjutant General Moore.

'A GREAT SUCCESS' SAYS ENQUIRER OF MAYSVILLE MAN'S PLAY.

While the critics have not been inordinately cordial toward Marie Dressler in her new farce, "A Mix-Up," at the Thirty-ninth Street Theater, the public has taken the rough-and-tumble comedienne to its heart and apparently the piece is as good a success as it was on the road during its preliminary tour. It is the first effort of a former young Washington newspaper man, who seems to have just exactly fitted Miss Dressler with a part after her own peculiar style. She plays the role of the prima donna of the Boulevard Burlesquers, who, in a highly picturesque and startling evening gown, strays into the sanctum of a pair of newlyweds, a city apartment, mistaking it for that of a sister artist. The young wife happens to be spending the night with mother, and the young husband has enough sense of humor to take the visit philosophically. But at the unexpected moment the young man's wealthy aunt and uncle from up-state pounce in to pay him a visit, and what follows is enough to fill out the evening with the sort of humor that has no other description than that of farce. An element of novelty is introduced by showing on a transparent screen what is happening to the absent wife at her mother's home, an expedient which is very popular just now and owes its origin to the motion picture entertainment—New York Correspondence to Sunday's Enquirer.

This is Parker Hord's play and it is gratifying to hear further confirmation of his success.

EGYPT ADOPTS NEW FLAG.

Cairo, Egypt, January 13.—The Egyptian flag adopted with the termination of Turkish suzerainty is now to be seen flying from all the public and many private buildings in Cairo. The new flag consists of three white crescents with their backs to the staff, each with a five-pointed white star between the horns on a red field. This flag was the personal standard of the Khedive, and now takes the place of the former national flag, which was distinguished from the Turkish by having a star of five instead of six points.

NAMED FOR LIEUTENANT CUSHING.

Boston, Mass., January 13.—The memory of Lieutenant William R. Cushing, who sank the Albatross in Wilmington harbor during the Civil war, will be honored next Saturday, when a torpedo boat destroyer bearing his name will be launched at the Fore River shipyards at Quincy. The vessel will be christened by Miss Marie L. Cushing of Fredonia, N. Y., who is a daughter of Lieutenant Cushing.

SUES GOVERNOR FOR STOPPING RACES.

Oklahoma City, Okla., January 13.—Former Governor Le Sueur and several officers of the Oklahoma national guard are defendants in a suit which came up for hearing in the district court today. The complainant in the suit is R. J. Allison, who seeks to recover damages from the former Governor and the militia officers for interfering with the Tulsa running races last spring.

PATIENCE IS EXHAUSTED.

Stolen, in the last few years: Ten head of cows and yearlings, four mules and two horses; school room that I had bought, including the ceiling and joist; barn and sheds, from old Owen ranch (they didn't travel far), would have taken the well if they could have pulled it up. Also some wire and posts, one auto tire, also new rawhide whip. Haven't shot a man for 40 or 45 years and that was a relief. So I will have to try keeping a bulldog. Ad of J. S. Coen in Garden City (Kas.) Telegram.

THE PHILANDERING OF PHILANDER.

Brother Philander, our head deacon, claims he can always tell when the spirit is working on Old Bill Shiftless. Bill will come around and ask Philander's advice about some business deal. He then "goes forward," and the next day he drops around to ask Philander for a loan. Philander refuses and Old Bill backsides, claiming that the church people are not sincere.—Marion (Kas.) Record.

VERTICAL MUSTACHE

Caused Youth's Arrest—Had a Fine Time Until Steam From Coffee Melted Glue.

(Cincinnati Times Star.)

Harry McKiffresh's false mustache got him into trouble. It was aided and abetted by Harry's penchant for joking. However, as he is but 19 years old and came from Maysville, Ky., to have a good time, Judge Yeaman told him in court Tuesday to cease his "cutting up" and go back home. The very first act of Harry when he alighted from a U. & O. train at the depot smoke-shed was to purchase the mustache. It was a fine mustache as far as false ones go. It adhered to the lip by means of glue. It had drooping ends like Alkali Ike's lip plume and Harry was gay when he went up Elm street. He entered a restaurant and asked for coffee and—The steam from the coffee melted the glue and the man who was seated across the table from Harry pushed back his chair when he saw the mustache become vertical, and then whirl like the arms of a windmill when Harry breath struck it. Others looked. They called a policeman. He looked. Not being used to such occurrences, the officer gazed at him and his mustache.

A FATHER'S ADVICE TO HIS SON.

(West Union (U.) Record.)
It is related of a Highland county youth who was being reared upon a farm, and who had just returned from college for his summer vacation, accompanied with a swelled and vaunting ambition, evidenced by a high collar, a blazing red necktie, nose glasses and a polka-dot vest, that after greeting his family, he thus addressed his father: "Ah, don't you know, father, I have long cherished a desire to go on the stage, and have at last decided, with your permission to—"
He got no further. "My boy," interrupted the old granger, "all the world's a stage. You take off those bifidurin' dandy clothes, hang those specs on a nail and hitch the mules to the big red plow and transfer the outfit to the lot acre lot behind the barn, where you can enact the star role in that beautiful drama entitled, 'Down On the Farm.'"

A classical literary "find" of decided interest is reported by the Egyptian exploration fund managers. It is a heroic unknown poem by Sappho, not complete, but including 56 fragments. The manuscript was found at Oxyrhynchus. One of the fragments bears the title, "The First Book of the Lyrics of Sappho, 1332 lines." Two of the fragments have been made public: "The fairest thing in all the world, some say, is a host of horsemen, some a host of foot, some again a navy of ships, but to me 'tis the heart's beloved," and "Woman is ever easy to bend when she thinks lightly of what is near and dear."

Give the average man's artistic feeling free play and the probabilities are that it will express itself in a pink mustache.

WOMAN REFUSES OPERATION

Tells How She Was Saved by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Louisville, Ky.—"I think if more suffering women would take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound they would enjoy better health. I suffered from a female trouble, and the doctors decided I had a tumorous growth and would have to be operated upon, but I refused as I do not believe in operations. I had fainting spells, bloated, and could hardly stand the pain in my left side. My husband insisted that I try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I am so thankful I did, for I am now a well woman. I sleep better, do all my housework and take long walks. I never fail to praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for my good health."—Mrs. J. M. RESCU, 1900 West Broadway, Louisville, Ky.

Since we guarantee that all testimonials which we publish are genuine, it is not fair to suppose that if Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has the virtue to help these women it will help any other woman who is suffering in a like manner.
If you are ill do not drag along until an operation is necessary, but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.
Write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.
